Online Safety and Cyberbullying

The internet is a useful and entertaining tool but it’s important for young people to be savvy about the risks and dangers that are present online. Online safety involves being aware of risks and issues such as viewing inappropriate content, grooming and sharing personal information.

Topics covered in this course:

- How and why do young people use the internet and social media?
- What are the risks of using the internet unsafely?
- How can you help children and young people be safe online?
- What is cyberbullying and how can you get help for it?
